Understanding the Anatomy of Towers

Before positioning a wager, players should understand how the game operates. Usually presented as a grid-- varying from simple modes (e.g., 3x9) to professional modes (e.g., 4x9 or higher)-- each row represents an action up the tower.

- The Objective: Select a tile in the current row. If it exposes a safe symbol (like a gem or a crown), the multiplier increases, and the player advances to the next row.
- The Hazard: If the gamer chooses a tile consisting of a trap (such as a skull or bomb), the bet is lost instantly.
- The Cashout: Players can cash out their built up winnings at the end of any successfully completed row.

Due to the fact that the multiplier increases with every successful row, the temptation to climb up "just one more level" is strong. However, mathematical reality dictates that the greater one climbs, the higher the cumulative threat.
