What is the Limbo Casino Game?

Limbo is an instant-win casino game promoted mostly by crypto-gaming websites like Stake. Influenced by the timeless "Crash" mechanic, Limbo asks an easy question: Can you think how high the multiplier will go?

Unlike Crash, where players see a rocket or a line climb up and manually squander before it crashes, Limbo is a static game. Players pick a target multiplier before the round begins. The game then generates a random multiplier. If the created multiplier is equal to or greater than the player's target, the bet wins. If it falls listed below the target, the bet loses.

How a Round Works:

1. Place a Bet: The gamer chooses just how much money they wish to bet.
2. Set a Target Multiplier: The gamer chooses their desired payment (e.g., 2x, 10x, 100x, or perhaps 1,000,000 x).
3. Roll/Spin: The player strikes the bet button.
4. The Result: The system generates a random number. The UI displays whether the target was satisfied and computes the payout quickly.

Understanding the Mathematics and RTP

To an observer, Limbo may appear like pure uncertainty, but it is deeply rooted in probability. Many reliable online gambling establishments offer Limbo with a very high Return to Player (RTP)-- usually around 99%. This implies the home edge is a razor-thin 1%.

The mathematical relationship in Limbo is inversely proportional: The higher your target multiplier, the lower your win possibility. Conversely, the lower your target, the greater your opportunities of winning.

Limbo Probability Breakdown

Target Multiplier Win Probability (%) Example Potential Payout on a £ 10 Bet 1.01 x 98.01% £ 10.10 2.00 x 49.50% £ 20.00 5.00 x 19.80% £ 50.00 10.00 x 9.90% £ 100.00 50.00 x 1.98% £ 500.00 100.00 x 0.99% £ 1,000.00 1,000.00 x 0.099% £ 10,000.00
