Vinton has the feel of a small town even though it sits right on the eastern edge of Roanoke. Neighbors know each other, the Dogwood Festival brings everyone out each spring, and the homes range from brick bungalows near downtown to newer builds out toward the Blue Ridge Parkway. For Vinton residents who want dependable house cleaning, The Happy Housekeepers has been a familiar Roanoke Valley name since 1979.

Reliability is the word that comes up again and again in the company's customer reviews. People mention crews who arrive on time, work steadily and leave the house exactly how they hoped. That consistency traces back to founder Mary Jane Wszolek, whose work ethic the family company still describes as hard-working, reliable and honest. It is a good fit for a town like Vinton, where reputation travels quickly.

A standard visit in Vinton covers the full list. Furniture is dusted or polished, carpets are vacuumed, hard floors are mopped, the kitchen gets a complete clean-up and bathrooms get a total clean-up. Window sills, baseboards, blinds and ceiling fans are dusted, waste baskets are emptied and cobwebs are cleared from high corners and stairwells.
