This guide explores what makes a case "unusual," lists the most sought-after options, presents a comprehensive comparison table, and responses typical questions for both collectors and prospective investors.

What Makes a CS: GO Case "Rare"?

A case's rarity is determined by three core factors:

1. Drop Probability-- The official chances of obtaining a case after a match are deliberately low. Some cases were released with a drop chance of less than 1%, making them instantly limited.
2. Exclusivity-- Certain cases were just readily available during specific events, operations, or limited-time promos. When the occasion concluded, the case could no longer be gotten through normal gameplay, turning it into a collector's product.
