What Are CS: GO Case Battles?

Traditionally, opening a case in CS: GO/CS2 is a singular affair: a player purchases a secret, opens a case, and accepts whatever drops-- typically an inexpensive industrial-grade weapon.

Case battles (or case battles multiplayer) gamify this process. Numerous gamers (generally between 2 and 4) pool their resources to open the precise very same set of cases concurrently. The rules are straightforward:

1. The Buy-In: Each participant contributes the same cases to the battle (acquired using site balance, crypto, or deposited skins).
2. The Open: The system opens the cases for all players round by round.
3. Ball game: The overall monetary worth of all the skins dropped by a gamer during the battle is tallied.
4. The Winner: The player with the greatest total product value at the end of the battle takes home all the dropped skins from every gamer in the lobby.

If a gamer gets fortunate and pulls a factory-new knife while their challengers only pull minimal-value blue skins, that gamer wins a massive earnings.

How Do CS: GO Case Battle Sites Work?

To get involved, players should utilize third-party betting and trading platforms. Since Valve's main market has rigorous trade-hold limitations and caps, third-party websites use peer-to-peer (P2P) trading or internal site balances to help with fast transactions.
