As seen in the table above, the numbers 1 and 2 dominate the wheel, appearing 34 times integrated. Alternatively, the sought after Crazy Time bonus round only appears once, making it the rarest and most profitable section on the board.

The Four Bonus Rounds Explained by means of Demo Observation

When gamers watch or play the Crazy Time demonstration, their primary objective needs to be to witness how the four perk rounds function. These mini-games are where the huge payouts (up to 500,000 x the bet) happen.

1. Coin Flip

- Frequency: 4 segments on the wheel.
- How it works: A coin with a red side and a blue side is flipped by an automated machine. Each side is assigned a random multiplier before the flip. Whichever side lands face-up wins the gamer that multiplier.

2. Pachinko

- Frequency: 2 sectors on the wheel.
- How it works: Inspired by the conventional Japanese arcade game, a puck is dropped from the top of a board filled with pegs. The puck bounces down and lands in among several multiplier slots at the bottom, or in a "DOUBLE" slot, which doubles all multipliers on the board and triggers another drop.

3. Money Hunt

- Frequency: 2 sectors on the wheel.
- How it works: A huge screen shows 108 random multipliers hidden behind shooting gallery symbols (such as a cactus, a target, or a constable's star). Gamers utilize an on-screen cannon to intend and shoot at one symbol before time runs out, revealing their hidden multiplier.

4. Crazy Time

- Frequency: 1 section on the wheel.
- How it works: The ultimate bonus offer round. Gamers are transferred behind a huge red door into a vibrant, virtual world featuring a huge 64-segment wheel. The player must choose among 3 flappers (Green, Blue, or Yellow). The wheel spins, and whatever multiplier the picked flapper indicate is awarded. If it arrive on "DOUBLE" or "TRIPLE," all multipliers on the wheel are increased appropriately, and the wheel spins once again.

Why You Should Always Use the Crazy Time Demo First
