- Lesson 11: Night driving
- Lesson 12: Summary and case study

Step 4: The Driving Test

After finishing the 12 EDT lessons and putting in a lot of practice hours to develop self-confidence, the learner is qualified to request the useful driving test.

The test is administered by the RSA and involves a comprehensive assessment of the driver's useful abilities, road understanding, and vehicle safety awareness.

What to Expect on Test Day:

1. The Oral Check: The tester will ask concerns about the Rules of the Road and hand signals.
2. Technical Checks: The chauffeur will be asked to mention or show under the bonnet (e.g., examining oil or coolant levels) and test vehicle lights/horns.
3. The Drive: Approximately 30 to 40 minutes of driving in numerous traffic conditions, following instructions offered by the tester. The tester will also check reversing around a corner and a hill start.

Step 5: Transitioning to a Full Licence (The Novice Stage)

Passing the driving test is a major achievement, however the journey doesn't end there for new drivers in Ireland. Upon passing, the effective candidate gets a certificate of competency, which they must use to make an application for their first Full Driving Licence.

Nevertheless, brand-new motorists go into a Novice period which lasts for the first 2 years of holding a full licence.

- N-Plates: Just like the "L" plates, motorists need to display green "N" plates (for Novice) on their vehicle for the first two years.
- Lower Alcohol Limit: Novice drivers undergo a lower alcohol threshold than knowledgeable motorists. The legal limitation for a novice is 20mg of alcohol per 100ml of blood (compared to 50mg for experienced drivers).
- Penalty Points Threshold: Novice drivers face disqualification if they collect 7 penalty points rather of the basic 12 points, making cautious driving critical.
